NOTES

1 - The Burns Recreation Center:

- Any undergraduate and graduate student can use the shower.
- The cost to utilize the Recreation Center is part of their tuition.

2 - LMU will not allow students to sleep in their cars on campus.

3 - Center for Service & Action's Food Pantry (See University Resources/Item #2)

- Pantry is for low-income students and students experiencing financial hardships.
- The pantry consists of non-perishables, which includes tuna, spam, oatmeal/cornflakes, mac & cheese, canned goods (Chef Boyardee, fruits, vegetables), pop tarts, trail mix, peanut butter, popcorn, juice, water, sodas.
- There is an honor system, so students can go in during opening hours and take what they need.
- The pantry provides bags so students can carry their items discreetly.
- If you want to donate food to CSA's Food Pantry, CSA would prefer that donations come to them directly (not left in the pantry) so they can keep an inventory. You can also donate through CSA's Amazon Wish List account. You can go to Amazon and find CSA's wish list – LMU Food Pantry Wish List – Under "Find a List or Registry" (located where you sign in).
