Hats for Hope

Knitting: A Tool for Social Justice

LMU is teaming up across campus to recognize National LGBTQ History Month and National Bullying Prevention Month. During October, a cross-campus collaborative project called “Hats for Hope: Knitting as a Tool for Social Justice” will create opportunities for the LMU community to learn how to knit hats in support of the LGBTQ community and Anti-Bullying.

Knitting Workshops:

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 17
12:00–1:00PM
Location: Foley Lawn
Cost: $10 cash*

WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 23
12:00–1:00PM
Location: Dunning Courtyard
Cost: $10 cash*

“Kits by The Knitting Tree LA will contain yarn, a pattern, and a pair of needles for $10.00 each (cash). You can also bring your own yarn and needles.”

Special Events:

WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 16
2:00–1:00PM
Learn and Lunch
(bring your own lunch)
Speaker: Jasmine Nyende
Multimedia, textile artist
William H. Hannon Library
Room 117

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 17
10:00AM–1:00PM
GLSEN SPIRIT DAY
Anti-Bullying Pledge Drive
Palm Walk at Lawton Plaza
Free hat pattern available.

OCTOBER 14–25
YARN BOMBING LOS ANGELES
Installation: In support of LGBTQ and Anti-Bullying
Palm Walk at Lawton Plaza
@yarnbombingla

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 12
11:00AM–2:00PM
Yarn Bombing Los Angeles
Public Stitching Party & Install
Palm Walk at Lawton Plaza

WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 16
8:00–10:00 P.M.
Del Rey Players Performance of Dog Sees God and Talk Back
North Hall

SEPTEMBER 21–DECEMBER 14
Antonius–Tin Bui: Finding Heart (tím tim)
LMU’s Laband Art Gallery
Features exquisite artwork of queer, Vietnamese-American, gender non-binary artist
Antonius–Tin Bui.